

Chloe (second left) with her mum, dad and sister

REAL LIFE

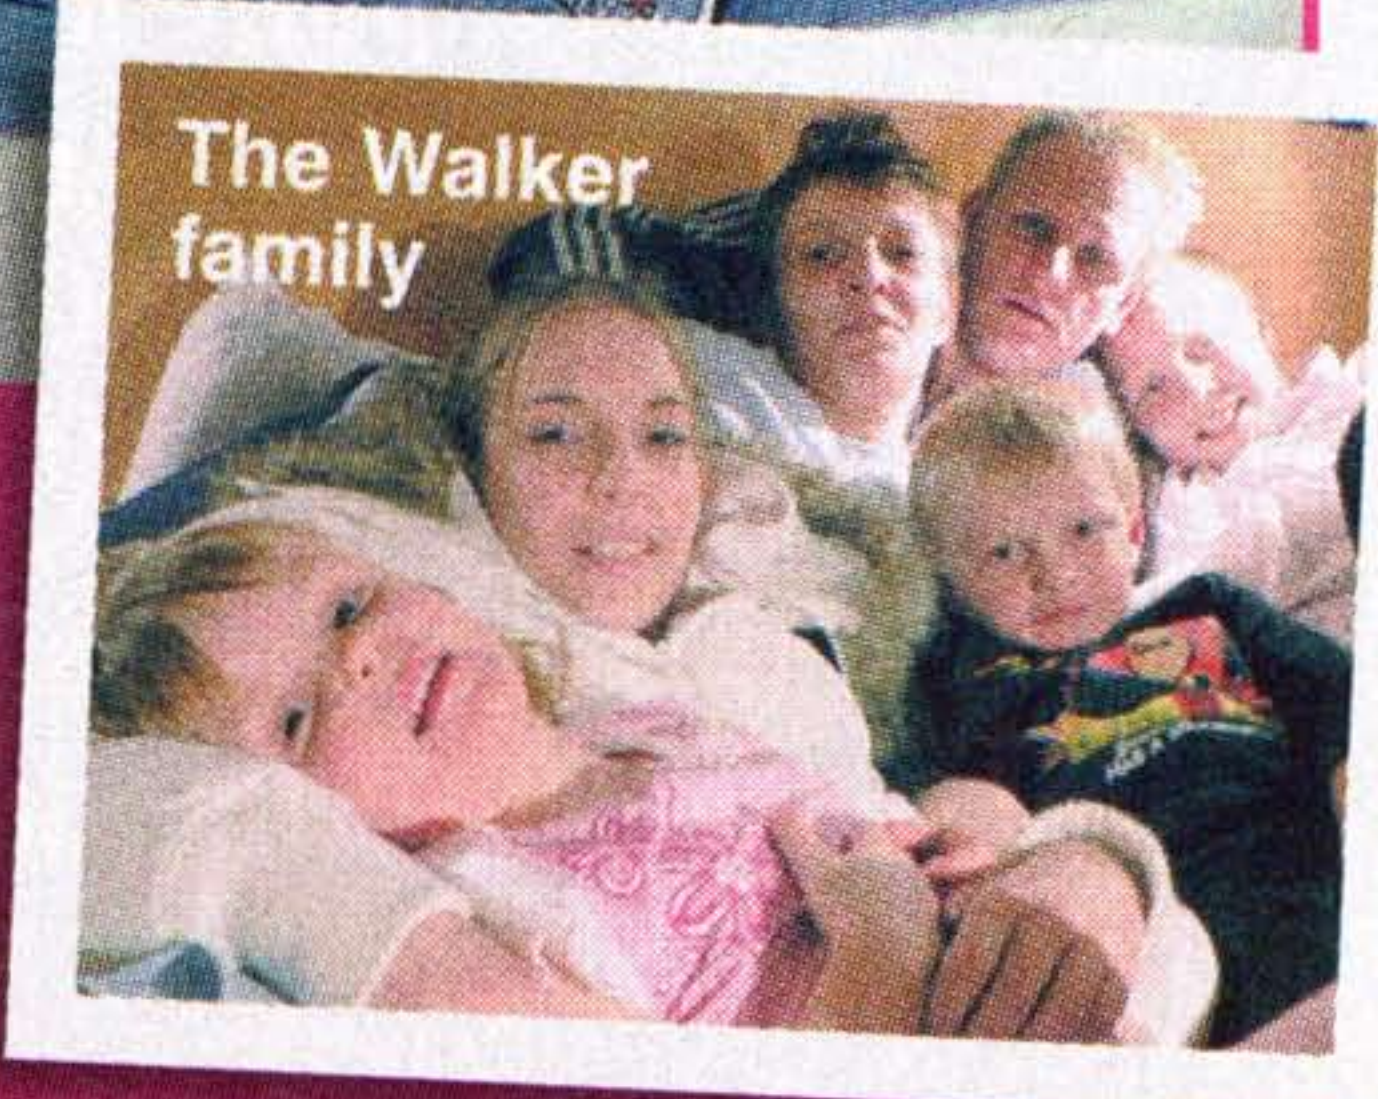

Evicted, BBC1 Wednesday

Without a home

Shown as part of the BBC's No Home week, this heart-breaking film follows three young girls as they try to deal with the nightmare of homelessness.

Charlotte Walker, 13, has been homeless for 18 months, along with her parents and three siblings. As the film starts, they're staying with friends, but this can't go on. Eight-year-old Chloe Green's mum was evicted after a housing benefit mix-up. Sarah Marriott, 15, had to leave school after being sent to a B&B 20 miles away.

Other programmes in the No Home week include a Skint special, a Casualty storyline with Pauline Quirke, and a showing of classic TV drama Cathy Come Home.

The Walker
family