

THURSDAY Main channels

Today's pick

Frank Skinner On Muhammad Ali

BBC1, 9.00pm Almost a year after the boxing icon's death, comedian Frank Skinner is on a quest to discover more about his idol. He travels around the UK and US, visiting key locations and people in Ali's life, including his old sparring partner and friend Larry Holmes, and discovers how Ali's unshakeable self-confidence and ability to manipulate the crowd were powerful weapons against his erstwhile opponent George Foreman.

Catching A Killer

Channel 4, 9.00pm In May last year, 31-year-old Natalie Hemming (above) was reported as having been missing for 48 hours. This feature-length documentary captures almost every detail of the ensuing investigation undertaken by Thames Valley Police, including the moment family liaison officers have to tell Natalie's loved ones they're now treating the incident as a murder case. An impeccably well-judged and important piece of television.